FRIDAY EVEN'G., FEBRUARY 6.

A PITIFUL STORY .- Last Spring, says an In dianapolis paper, some quilts were missing from Gilmore's livery stable, and Jimmy Connelly, a little boy, whose father resides on California street, was accused of the theft. He was arrested, but stoutly denied his guilt. He acknowledged that he knew who took the quilts, though he did not take them. Nothing could induce him to name the culprits. His father, fearing that he was not innocent of the accusation, sent him to the reform school at Plainville. He wrote to his father whenever he had an opportunity, reiterating his innocence and begging to be called tack home. The father, believing that he was doing what was best for the boy, let him remain. A few days so the child was sent home s corpse, having died of homesickness. When he knew he was going to die he made a statement of what he know about the theft, and again asserted his innocence. Ho hated to give the boys away, he said, they had been his friends, but he did not want to die with such a charge against him. He named the lads who had cou-mitted the theft, but affirmed that he was not

The Alexandria Gazette, begun in 1799, is the oldest newspaper in Virginia, and it has survived, with few exceptions, all the public presses in America which saw with it the dawn of the nineteenth century. It lives too, not in decay or decrepit, but full of life and youthful vigor, giving all the news, telling the truth without fear, favor or affection, trenching on the privacy of no man's home, but full to the brim with all public information, and giving daily honest udgments of public men and public measures.

It furnishes the news telegrams of the New York Associated Press and of Reuter's European agency, being, with but two exceptions, the only paper between Baltimere and Richmond that is thus connected with the great fountains of the world's news.

With the coming year all the long tried and improved methods of making a standard newspaper will be continued, with such additional facilities as part experience justifies the proprietor in believing will add to the espacity of the Gazette to serve its readers. It expects to render faithful service to the city, the state and the country by a candid criticism of men and events in the interest of the people of the Commonwealth

The year 1880 will be a period of critical interest in both the Union and the Commonwoalth. The election of the eighteenth President of the United States will take place, with all the combinations precedent, and counts; consequences and settlements subsequent, will call for record in the coming volume. The developments of the financial situation, which may portend afflu enco and comfort or poverty and privation to thousands, are now in progress, and the columns of the Gazette will note each step as well as chronicle the result. A new and striking foreign policy is among likely events, and the absorbing interest of it cannot be overestimated. In Virginia there is political chaos and industrial and commercial depression. The way out of this quagmire will fill many of those paragraphs with information of rare interest.

To meet all the demands upon it in an exceptional year, the Gazette will be made a WASH-INGTON and RICHMOND NEWSPAPER, as well as an ALEXANDEIA JOURNAL. The Richmond and Washington news of the past year has left little to improve, but yet greater effect will be made to insure absolute perfection in these departments.

The city of Alexandria will find as usual its daily history in each evening's issue, and the intelligence of that section of the Common wealth which nature has bound to Alexandria by the curvature of its mountains or the courses of its rivers as well as that portion linked to us by the iron bands of railways, will be assidnously

The Business and Commercial columns of the Gazette will be filled with the earliest and most exact commercial news, edited with such painstaking care as will render an error, where even slight errors are dangerous, impossible.

The Cattle Markets of all the leading points of the world whose rates affect this market will be quoted, and regular statements of the Baltimore,

The Flour, Grain and Produce movements will be noted daily, and the sales of the Alexandria and neighboring markets given with accuracy and dispatch. The Grocery and other markets will receive constant attention, and the money or stock markets of the country epitomized for its columns, full details being given to all stocks, &c , which find investors in this section of the country.

The advertising columns of the Gazette offer inducements which experience has shown to afford greater returns for a small investment than any other which can be made.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The beginning of the New Year, which in this case marks the adver t of another decade of the world's progress, is deemed a fit time for new features, so that from this date the Gazette for the country (tri-weel ly) will be supplied at FOUR DOLLARS per annum, in advance. THE NEW RATES.
